Responsibility for energy and environment

Responsibility for energy and environment.

The Hoval brand is internationally recognised as one of the leading suppliers of indoor climate control solutions. Around 70 years of experience have given us the necessary capabilities and motivation to continuously develop exceptional solutions and technically superior equipment.

Maximising energy efficiency and thus protecting the environment are both our conviction and our incentive. Hoval has established itself as an expert provider of intelligent heating and climate control systems that are exported to over 50 countries worldwide.

Hoval indoor climate systems

Indoor climate systems ensure top air quality and economical usability. Hoval has been installing decentralised systems for many years. The key to its work is using combinations of multiple air conditioning units (even those of different types) that can be controlled individually, but also together as a single system. This enables Hoval to respond flexibly to a wide range of requirements for heating, cooling and ventilation.

Design support from experts.

Take advantage of the expertise of our experienced specialists. We will be happy to support you throughout all project phases when designing your system.

Working in close cooperation with you and taking into account all the specifications of the energy supplier, we develop the most efficient and cost-effective solution for you.

Hoval service expertise.

Hoval systems are professionally commissioned by specially trained and experienced Hoval service technicians, ensuring that the systems will operate perfectly from day one.

Maintenance and troubleshooting are performed on-site by an expert customer service team.
